Approved For Release 2005/07/01 : CIA-RDP91-00901R 000700060072-9

Distribution II

CIA-WIRFONS

22 September 1981

BY ROBERT PARRY

WASHINGTON (AP) -- THE LUCRATIVE TRADE IN U.S. WEAPONS TECHNOLOGY ABROAD IS PROMPTING A NUMBER OF FORMER CIA OFFICIALS, INCLUDING A PAST DEPUTY DIRECTOR, TO CASH IN ON THEIR GOVERNMENT EXPERTISE AND CONTACTS.

GEN. VERNON WALTERS, THE CIR'S NO. 2 MAN FROM 1972-76, RECEIVED $300,000 EARLY THIS YEAR FROM A COMPANY THAT SPECIALIZES IN SELLING SOPHISTICATED MILITARY TECHNOLOGY TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES, ACCORDING TO GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS AND INTERVIEWS WITH THE PRINCIPALS.

WHILE THERE IS NO SUGGESTION THAT WALTERS? DEALINGS WERE IN ANY MAY ILLEGAL, THEY HIGHLIGHT SOME QUESTIONS ABOUT RESTRICTING BUSINESS ACTIVITIES OF FORMER INTELLIGENCE OFFICIALS. CIA OFFICIALS HAVE ACCESS TO SENSITIVE GOVERNMENT SECRETS; THEY DEVELOP CONTACTS WITH HIGH-RANKING FOREIGN OFFICIALS; AND THERE IS A COMMON SUSPICION THAT THEY STILL WORK FOR THE CIA EVEN AFTER THEY RESIGN.

CALTERS, NOW AN AMBASSADOR-AT-LARGE AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND A KEY FIGURE IN PRESIDENT REAGAN'S FOREIGN POLICY, SAID HE CONTACTED TOP MOROCCAN OFFICIALS ON BEHALF OF A FIRM INTERESTED IN MODERNIZING MOROCCO'S TANK CORPS.

IN AN INTERVIEW WITH THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, WALTERS SAID HIS MAIN BERK FOR THE COMPANY, ENVIRONMENTAL ENERGY SYSTEMS INC., WAS ""PUTTING THEM (COMPANY OFFICIALS) IN TOUCH WITH THE RIGHT PEOPLE.""

ROROCCO TENDATIVELY AGREED TO PRY ENVIRONMENTAL ENERGY SYSTEMS #190 MILLION FOR REFITTING ITS TANKS WITH SOPHISTICATED LASER TARBETING, NIGHT-VISION EQUIPMENT AND NEW ENGINES, SAID THE COMPANY'S PRESIDENT, JOHN R. NCLANE.

THE DEAL FELL THROUGH, HE SAID, WHEN THE U.S. GOVERNMENT AGREED TO SUPPLY MOROCCO WITH NEW AMERICAN TANKS.

WALTERS SAID HE ALSO WAS INVOLVED WITH THE COMPANY'S HILITARY SALES PROPOSALS TO SPAIN, SOUTH KORES AND BRAZIL, ADDING: ''! WOULD NOT DO ANYTHING WITH ANY COUNTRY THAT WAS NOT A FRIEND OF THE UNITED STATES.''

OTHERS MAY NOT HAVE BEEK SO DISCRIMINATING.

THE HOUSE INTELLIGENCE CONNITTEE ANNOUNCED PLANS LAST MEEK TO INVESTIGATE FORMER CIA: OPERATIVE EDMIN WILSON, WHO ALLEGEDLY USED HIS CIA CONTACTS AND EXPERIENCE TO ILLEGALLY PEDDLE ADVANCED WEAPONS TECHNOLOGY TO LIBYAN LEADER MORMMAR KHADAFY.